HEALTH BOARD HELD MEETING

The Board of Health held a very interesting meeting last night in the office of Dr. D. C. Farquhar. There were present Messrs. Shutterly, Odbert, Park, Farquhar and Odbert. Health Officer Clendennon made his report at length for the month, detailing every notice served, every nuisance abated and every official act during the month. The report was accepted with approval and was commented upon by Mr. Park as being well rendered.

Several matters of importance came up for consideration, one of which was the placing of garbage receptacles in apartment houses where tenants have no available place for garbage. The officer had notified tenants that receptacles must be kept off the streets and alleys and many of them had been placed on fire escapes. All people will now be notified that they cannot obstruct fire escapes.

Several places had been cleaned up at the instigation of the health officer. One of these was the Boquet flats. The question of hauling came up and Park wanted to know who had been doing the hauling and Mr. Clendennon said several parties. Where it was a

Last season the writer had occasion to visit a Pittsburg department store--we were showing "Oliver Twist" velvet suits at $4.15 and $4.95; the same suits were on sale in that department store and the women were crowding to get them. The announcement read "$8 and $10 Oliver Twist Suits at $5.90."

We ask you to visit our boys' department before you buy--it's to our mutual advantage.

TAYLORS WERE HERE

John Taylor and his three small children of Mt. Braddock, located twelve miles back of Connellsville, was in town yesterday selling sassafras and other herbs. Taylor is the father of Jacob Taylor, the lad accused of killing nine year old Florence Dove of Braddock about a year ago and who is now in a state insane institution.

The smallest child in the party was aged seven years and was small for his age. He and an older brother and a sister eleven years old, goes about town with a basket of sassafras and tells a pitiable story about his father's illness and the destitution of the family.

Deputy Sheriff Charles Copeman of Grensburg was here yesterday and identified the bunch and locating the father at the station where he was sorting the root and tieing up the bunches informed him that he was violating the law in keeping the children out of school. He promised he would sell out his stock and go back and place the children in school.

Taylor claims he is 52 years of age and the father of nine living children. He claims he is selling the roots to get money to free his son from the crime with which he is charged. He owns ten acres of land back in the mountains from which he harvests the sassafras.

Aside from the recommendation made by the finance committee with regard to the 1915 expense budget for running the town, the garbage question was discussed at length at last night's meeting of council. The report of the finance committee setting forth the amount of money required by each committee for expenses of the year was taken up in sections and discussed. The council seemed unanimous in a desire to keep the millage down to a minimum, and it will likely remain the same as last year, eleven mills. At the next meeting the millage will be fixed Elsewhere appears the full report of the finance committee as submitted last night.

The garbage question resulted in Chairman Shrader appointing A. W Johns, engineer, a committee of one to compile statistics as to the amount of garbage there is to be disposed of in a given time and report at the next meeting. It was suggested that a

INJURED BY A FALL

Rev J. B. Swain, pastor of the Christian church met with a painful accident last night and as a result he is today nursing a very sore face. Rev. Swain attended a social given by the Christian Circle class at the home of Miss Marguerite Gribben, 448 Reed avenue and as the company was leaving for their homes, the Reverend accidentally slipped on a bit of icy pavement, falling heavily and striking the right side of his face on the curb. A very ugly wound was inflicted. the skin being scraped from almost the entire cheek. Medical attention was given and Rev. Swain will not be able to preach Sunday, but the pulpit will be supplied.

Martha Washington Social

The Martha Washington social given last evening at the home of Miss Marguerite Gribben, Reed avenue by the Christian Circle class of the Christian church was well attended, there being about 45 class members and friends present. A most enjoyable evening was spent, music, plays and sociability making up the evening's program, aside from which there were "eats" galore The affair was a pronounced success.

BIG REVIVAL AT WEBSTER

The evangelistic meetings being held in the Presbyterian church at Webster, conducted by the Rev. H. G. Monessen are drawing to a close, it being expected that the services will close on Sunday evening These meetings have been going on three weeks with wonderful results, new persons expressing a desire each night to lead the better life.

Last night's meeting was among the best in the entire series, the church being crowded almost to its capacity and an awakening interest was shown throughout the entire congregation.

Rev. MacDonald preached a soul-stirring sermon, the truths of which touched everyone present.

Mr. Fred Matson who has charge of the music, has gathered about him a large selected choir and his efforts have formed a wonderful factor in the success of the meetings, as under his able direction, Webster people have been given a rare treat along the line of live wire sacred song work, and he has been ably assisted by the good people of Webster.

A feature of last night's meeting was the singing of a quartet from the town the size of Monessen would produce from fifteen to twenty tons every twenty four hours. The matter of building a furnace the coming year was brought up but some objections were filed by Frank Bumer, chairman of the finance committee. Mr. Bumer said that $9,000 was loaned to the borough from the garbage fund and if this had to be paid back at this time, it would mean a raise in the millage, and he favored no raise at this time. Dr. Hunter submitted a plan and profile of grounds decided upon by the committee and a motion was made that a price should be obtained by the next meeting and a report submitted.

An injunction was authorized restraining Louis Larguire from constructing anything on the borough property or in any way connecting his property with that of the borough at the intersection of the Reed avenue bridge. It is claimed that Mr. Laguire has violated instructions set down to him by council and he will be restrained by an order of court from building contrary to council's orders or cutting into the bridge to get an entrance to his store room.

A. J. Knight, chairman of the streets and roads committee, made a lengthy report which was adopted. He submitted a resolution for repairing Seneca street or Wild Cat hollow, fixing the cost of the improvements at about $600 and giving the engineer and the streets and roads committee authority to proceed with the work. The street was reported to be in an impassable condition. The residents of Linden avenue from First to Rostraver street are urging improvements to that street on account of the mud. Chairman Knight submitted the matter before council in his report but there was no action.

When the matter of the change of grade at Eleventh street and Donner avenue came up, council took a sane attitude on the question after Chairman Shrader had made a little talk repeating a conversation with Supt. Morgan. There was little doubt in the mind of Mr. Shrader but that the company wanted the improvement. The conversation was in the presence of Mr. Bumer, who reiterated Mr. Shrader's statements. Chrirman Shrader said it was a bad precedent to oppose an improvement for one of the town's big industries, when that improvement was also a public benefit and he was of the opinion that a representative of the company should appear at the next meeting to make the company's position plain, so that a thorough understanding could be had between council and the company before final action. The remarks were in keeping with good business sense. None of the councilmen seemed very anxious last night to take issues with the Pittsburg Steel or to be placed in the light of fighting the company. The matter will be disposed of at the next meeting.

The matter of constructing a sewer across a private property in McMahan borough was discussed and Councilman Milhollan was instructed to get in touch with the property owner to see if a permit could be obtained. Council adjourned until next Wednesday evening.

Great for Emergencies

San Cura Ointment Should Be in Every Home

There never was known a more reliable ointment than San Cura. In most every case where it has been used, it has created astonishment. It drew a needle out of the foot of the daughter of Mrs. James Hitchcock, of Centreville, Pa., after the doctor had used his lance and failed.

It has healing and antiseptic value. It possesses so much healing virtue that it is guaranteed by Craig's Drug store to relieve any kind of piles, eczema, tetter, salt rheuma, boils, carbuncles, ulcers, all kinds of chronic sores, chilblains and shaped hands, or money back.

It's a mighty handy remedy to have in the house in emergencies for bruises, burns, cuts or scalds, because it relieves the pain and is antiseptic and healing. It's a medicine chest in itself—a little family physician that is ever in demand. 25c and 50c a jar at Craig's Drug store.

Board of Health Meeting

matter of saving the people money, it was sometimes turned over to a teamster other than the official collector. Mr. Clendennon questioned L. P. Carter's right to charge more than was set down in the contract made with the borough, as he said he had done on many occasions, and as was done in cleaning up the Boquet flats where fifty cents was charged for a tub of old shoes. This matter was not discussed further and the garbage collector was present but was not called upon to explain.

The matter of people and cows living under the same roof was taken up and discussed and it was decided that as long as the places were sanitary, there could be no interferance on the part of the health department. There was little outside of routine business transacted and the Board adjourned until the next regular meeting night.

On Thursday evening the clerks of the N. W. Schlup store gave a surprise party in honor of Mr. Schlups birth aniversary. The young ladies had everything nicely planned and the affair was carried out most successfully to the hearty enjoyment of all. With Mrs. Schlup's aid the young ladies were enabled to carry out their plans all the more successfully, and when Mr. Schlup got home, everything was ready for his reception. The house was very prettily decorated with flowers and colors befitting the Washington birthday season and the parlors and dining room looked very pretty and invitiing. The young folks arrived at the Schlup home about 8 o'clock and said good night at 11:30. Choice music and appropriate plays supplemented by a most enjoyable luncheon was heartily enjoyed by the young lady guests as well as Mr. and Mrs. Schlup, both of whom took a lively interest in the observance of this, one among Mr. Schlup's happiest birthdays.

This column is devoted to the expression of the opinion of our readers and in no wise denotes the paper's opinion on or sympathy with any question involved.

Dear Editor:

Will you permit me to write a few words for the consideration of your readers. There are certain questions that touch me deeply and when the spell sweeps over me, I have to take my pen in hand.

Three articles appeared in your paper the other evening over which I have been pondering. They were good. The one by Miss Watson is not only good, but excellent. The town ought to be proud of such a one. She will surely be among that innumerable throng to which the Master referred when he said "in as much as ye did it unto the least of these, ye did it unto me." What a fine sentence that "we pay money into our hospitals to cure what we could prevent." How much money we might save, putting it on a mercenary basis, by preventing instead of waiting to cure. I need not mention anything more about this excellent article for the truth is evident on the face of it.

But as to the first article I am afraid some will not detect the error on the face of it. The writer in referring to the house on Reed avenue, uses these words, "valued by the owner at $3,500." And upon the basis of what the owner values his property at. he bases the rate of income or profit.

That is the trouble today, we figure the rate of profit on the valuation instead of the actual amount of money invested. I would like to know how much cold cash the owner actually put into the property. Now we will ask for the sake of illustration that he actually put $2500.00, what is the rate of profit on every dollar invested, 6.6% plus, Why should he receive an income on the other $1,000.00 He did not add that much to the place. The rest of the good people was the cause of that increased value. Why should a tenant pay the owner an income which does not belong to him.

Again, "Shall the landlord refuse to rent his premises when the tenant deliberately chooses to live under such conditions. It is not a one sided question at least, whatever you say." On the same basis of reasoning, the writer would permit a sheep to walk off the cliff if it so chose to do, although he were standing near and yet held responsible for the brute. That is not a one sided question is it? Well if the writer were to do such a trick, the owner of the sheep would have no mercy on his logic. And if he were the owner of the sheep he would scramble to prevent the disaster. But of course a human being isn't of the same value as a sheep, he is less in the eyes of the man who loves money.

No. to be honest, we save the sheep because we love the money he is worth, we rent the unsanitary basements because we want the filthy lucre in preference to the saving of life. I submit to you open minded, is it a two sided question to rent an unsanitary basement to an unenlightened and uneducated human being, just because he may deliberately choose to live therein.

Why today the whole country is awakening and saying we will not permit the man to drink liquor even though he chooses to do so and do it deliberately. I can not conceive how any individual with ordinary grey matter can read the first and third articles in your paper and then draw the conclusion that we have no obligation beyond what the other man chooses. I submit again in closing, do you honestly think readers, that it is humane to permit a human being to live in an unsanitary basement when you can prevent by refusing to rent? If you reader, have an answer, let the columns of this paper have a chance to print it.

From one who tries to write occasionally

A Reader.

Mr. Editor:—

I read with much interest Mr. Carter's article in Thursday's issue with regard to the garbage question, and while some statements were no doubt true, there were others that indicated that he has a rough row to hoe. What I want to bring up at this time is the fact that the Monessen public is being hampered by personal feelings between representatives of the Board of Health and the garbage collector. This issue should be dealt with by council if the Board of Health is not able to take care of it. The taxpayers provide the money through council to maintain the Board of Health and when personalities between the garbage collector and the health officer become great enough to interfere with a department so closely related to our public health, then council ought to take hold of the matter and clean house. We need a town cleaning and we won't get it clean with jangling and quarreling. It is time for council to act.

Truth.

COLONIAL GETS FINE PIANO

Manak and Marchione, proprietors of the Colonial pool and billiard parlors, have installed a new Compton Price piano and the instrument arrived yesterday by express from Coshocton, Ohio, and was placed in the room. It is a model of its kind and there is no finer musical instrument of the piano family in town. It was purchased through Walter Robins, local agent for these and other high grade pianos, whose place of business is located corner Fourth and Donner. This enterprising firm is to be congratulated on fitting up their parlors for the entertainment of guests in such a manner and the supplying of the instrument will reflect abundant credit to Mr. Robins, whose personal guarantee as well as that of the factory he represents, stands back of every piano sold.

CHARITY FUND GETS DONATION

The local "Board of Charities" received a fine donation this week from the France-Belgium society in the sum of $95.00 to be distributed to the poor and needy of Monessen. The number of calls upon charity has not been as numerous during the last month as previously.

However, there are still a great number who are being assisted over the hard times and much money will still be needed before the winter is passed. This last donation is most acceptable and received like all others with gratitude.

Preparation for the summer months is under headway, and it is hoped that sufficient funds will be subscribed to assure the permanency of the "ice and milk" fund.

During the two or more hot summer months, it is expected that a trained baby nurse will be engaged to assist in saving many from an untimely grave.

Anyone wishing to contribute to this fund can leave their subscription with Alfred Tanzer of the Monessen Savings & Trust company.

Three new pitchers have been assigned: John Sherry. Mike Adams and George Brown.

THEATRICAL

To make any serious comment about the "Peacemakers" who are due to appear at the Monessen theatre Saturday afternoon and evening, February 27 would be unfair for all of the principals do such clever work that the Muses "Mirth and Fun" run a race to which a marathon is a funeral by comparison.

Talk about your "Turkey Trots"—well after you have seen them, you will prenounce Pearl Reid the queen of all. This young woman takes a train load out of every town where she appears.

Theatre goers want to laugh now-a-days—want to hear tinkling music, sparling songs and peachy girls. Halton Powell has succeeded in handing amusement lovers the best entertainment in recent years with his famous musical farce ."Henpecked Henry." No heart throbs, no tears, no sighs in this unusual show. All fun, music and song. The clever cartoon comedy presented by a company equally as good as the original will receive its initial presentation here next Monday, March 1, at the New Monessen theatre.
